BATTERY PARK TEAMS UP WITH HERMES SPORTS AND SOCIAL TO SERVE UP SUMMER FUN

CLEVELAND (June 13, 2008) – This summer, Battery Park will be home to more than modern townhomes and lofts. With a newly-constructed sand volleyball park, it will also be the place to go for some friendly competition.

Battery Park, a $100-million-dollar residential community located at 1303 W. 73rd St. in the Detroit Shoreway neighborhood of Cleveland, has teamed up with Hermes Sports and Social to host an all-new summer sand volleyball league.

The summer sand volleyball league begins on July 7 and runs until August 28, with games being played Monday through Thursday. Games will take place from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Battery Park volleyball complex that includes four courts and bench seating. Walking trails are also nearby.

Hermes Sports and Events, a Northeast Ohio sports management group, recently formed Hermes Sports and Social to offer events that include sports tournaments, tailgating parties and other social activities. In addition to sand volleyball, Hermes Sports and Social offers summer leagues for kickball, softball and flag football.

“We are excited about our partnership with Hermes Sports and Social,” said Mike Marous, project executive for Willoughby-based Vintage Development Group, the company developing Battery Park. “The sand volleyball complex will allow our residents to have another source of recreation and the league will provide the community with a great outlet for summer sports.”

The sand volleyball season will run for seven weeks, with an additional week for playoffs, where the top four teams in the regular season compete. The cost to participate is based on team size: a six-person team is $250, a four-person team is $200 and a two-person team is $100. Interested players can register at www.hermescleveland.com or by calling 216-623-9933.
